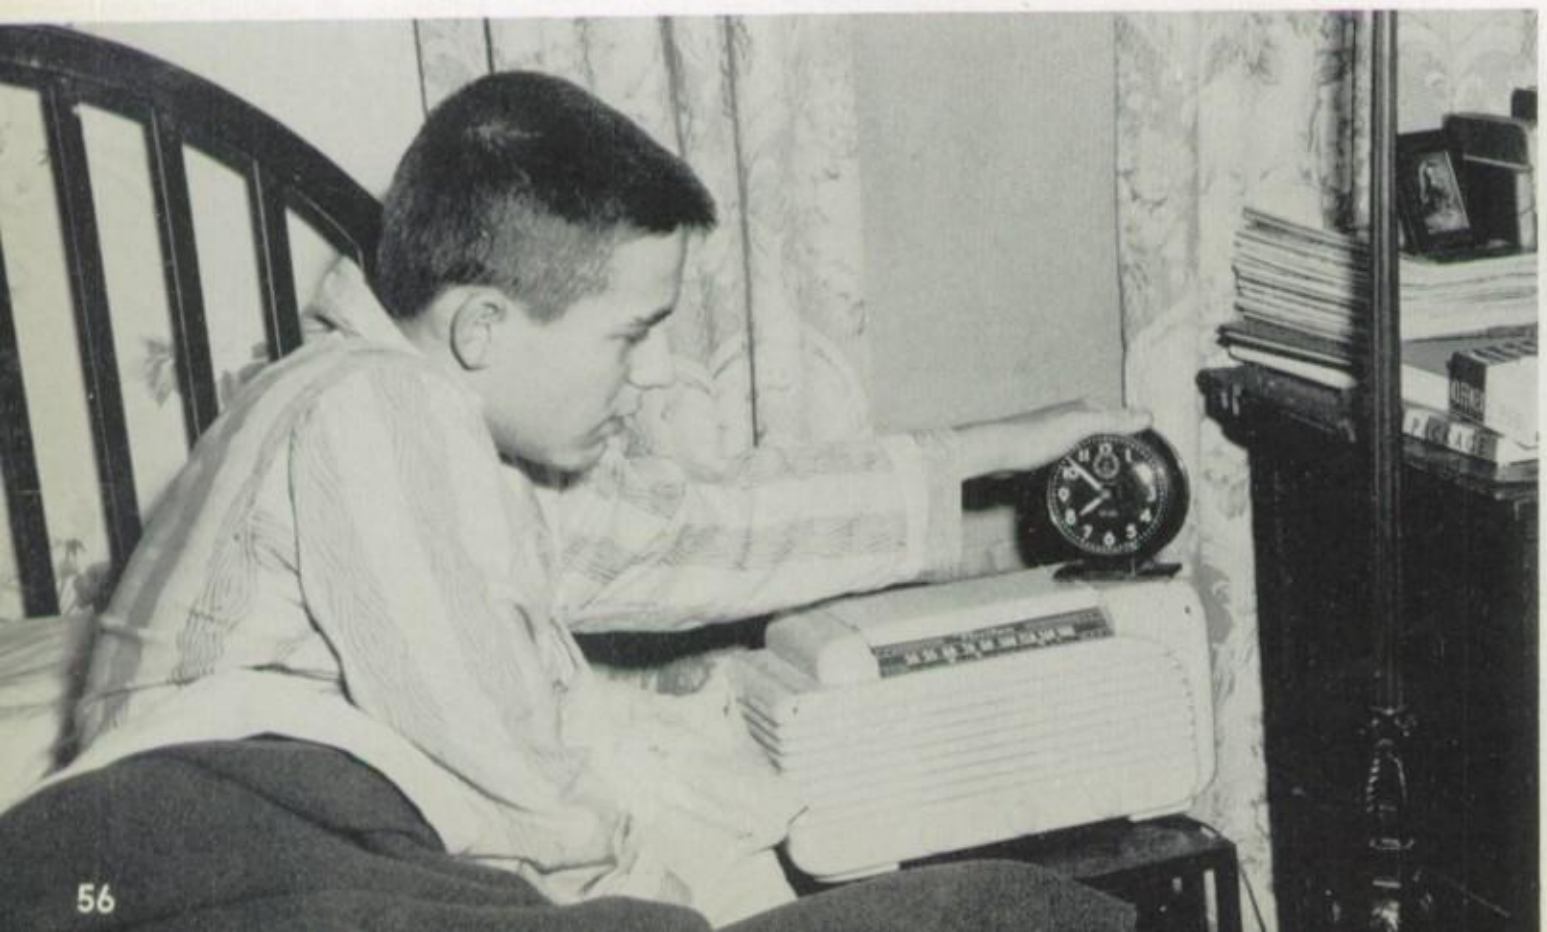
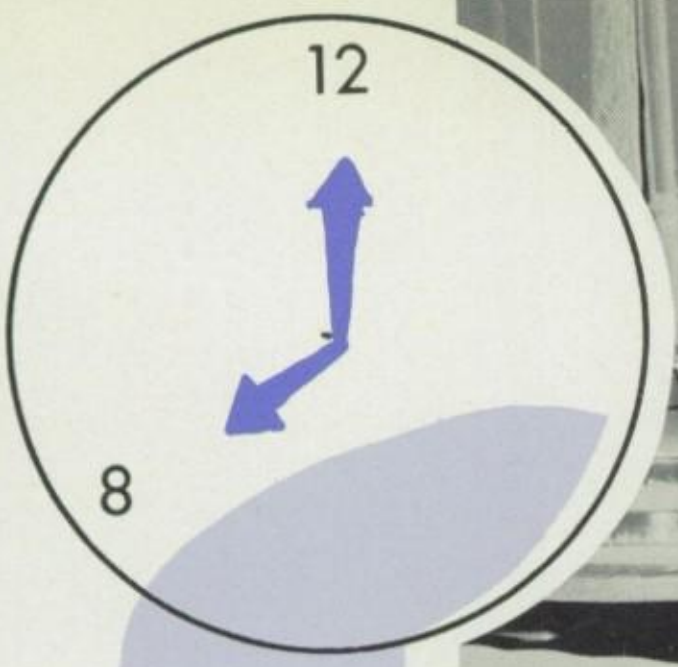
We erased our drowsy yawns with the tingly tang of toothpaste.

But we remember the argument between the cold jangle of our alarm clocks and the warm covers of our beds.

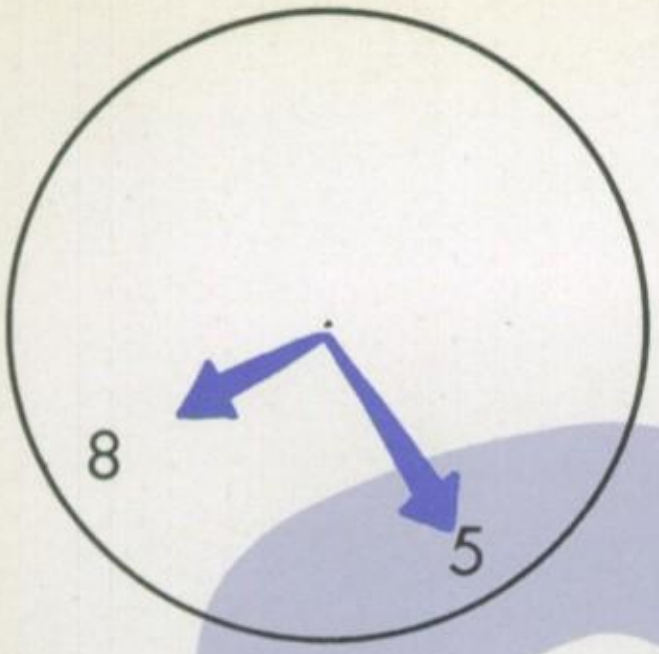


B

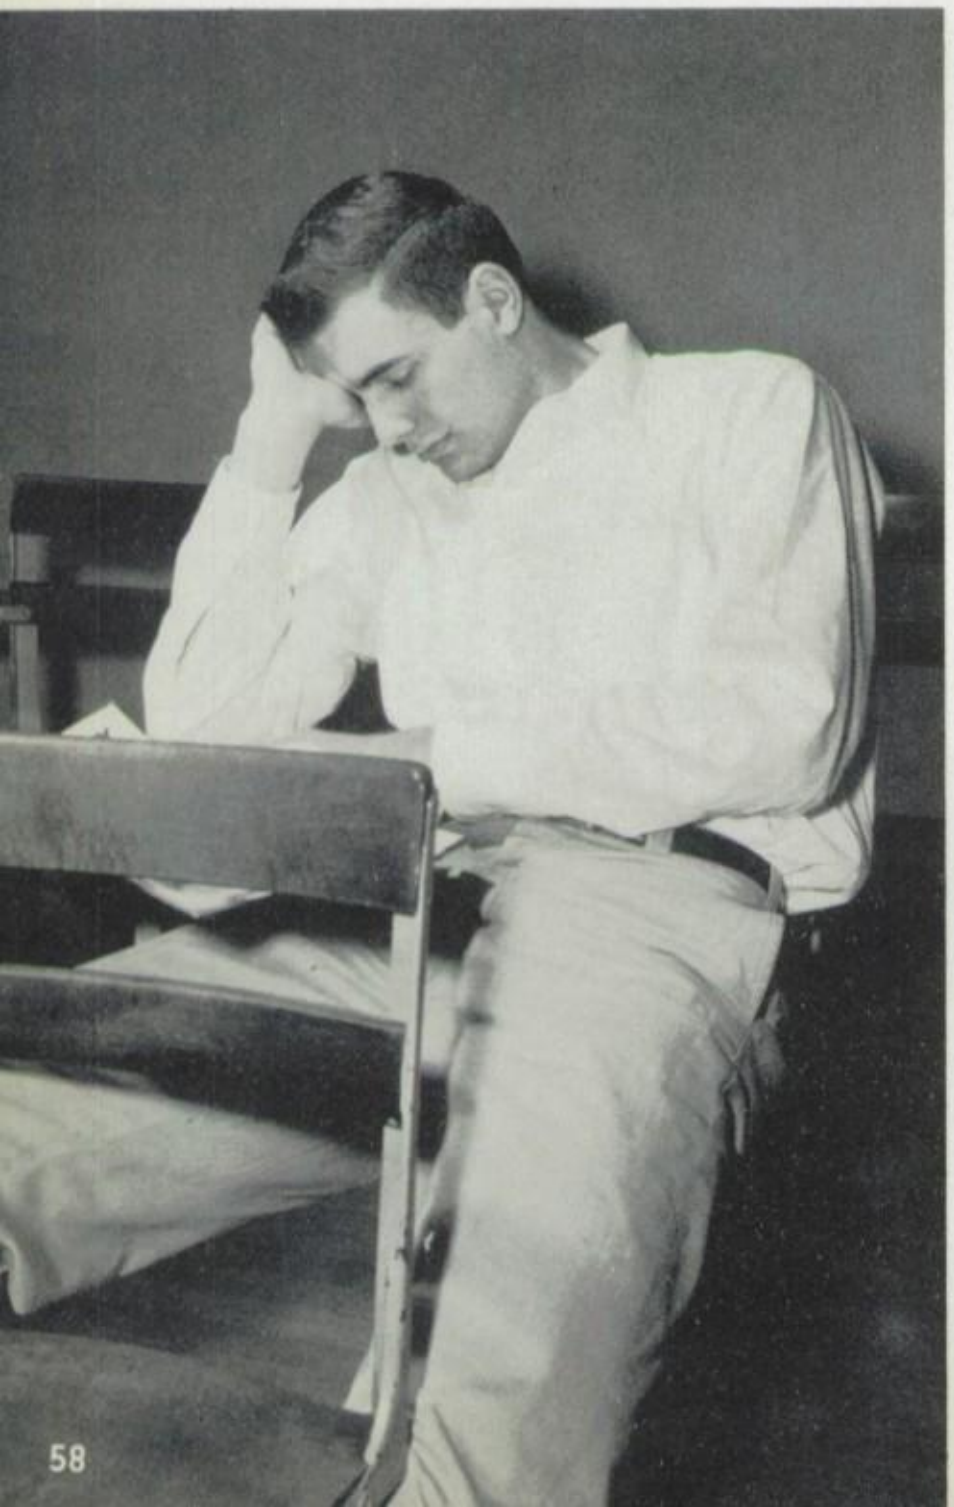


A few of us got up early enough to enjoy a leisurely breakfast.

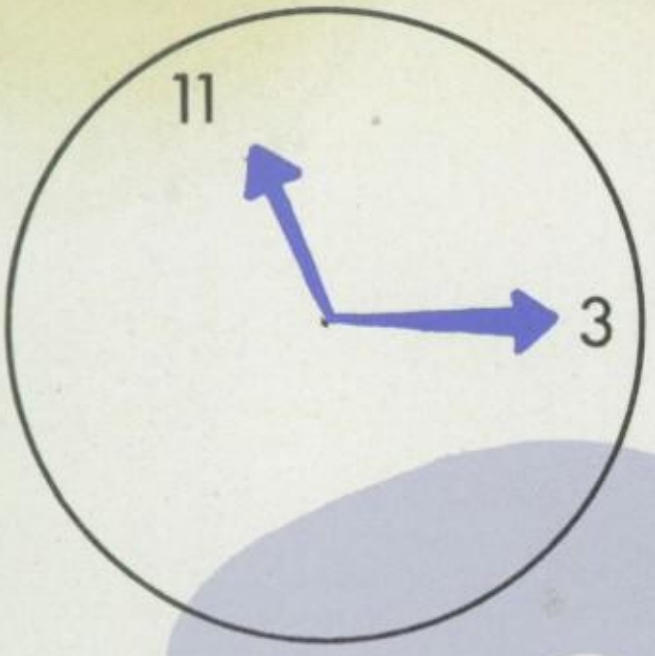
But the majority of us mixed our cornflakes with our history.



The members of the 24½ after club made sure that the brass's backs were turned before making the last mad dash to homeroom.

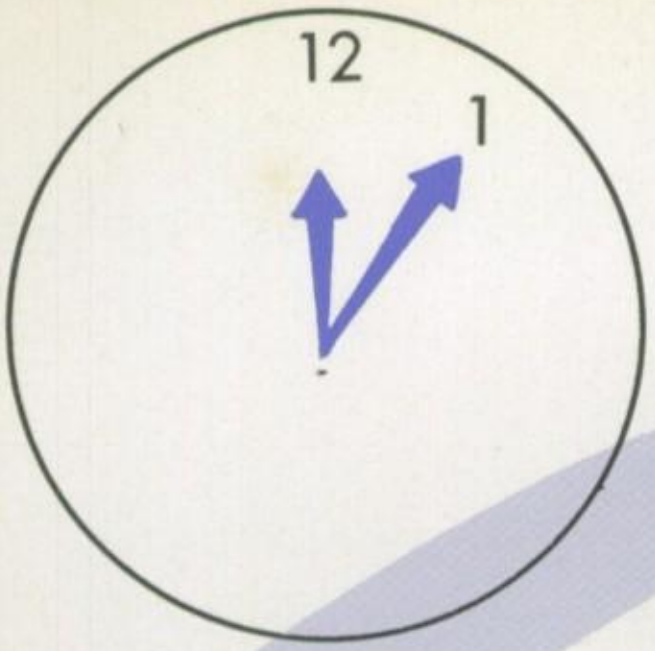


And in the first period class we sprawled, slumbering again.



Lover's modern dancing worked the kinks out of our bones.

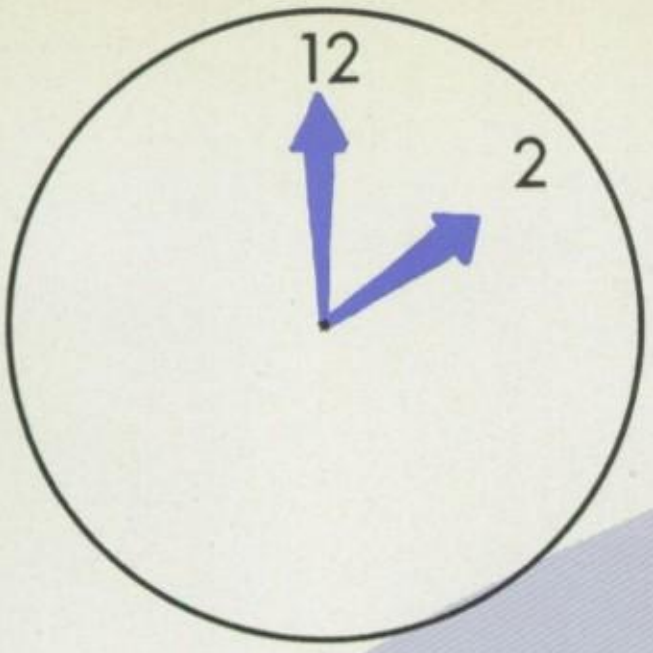
And Mr. T's art classes aroused our esthetic sense.



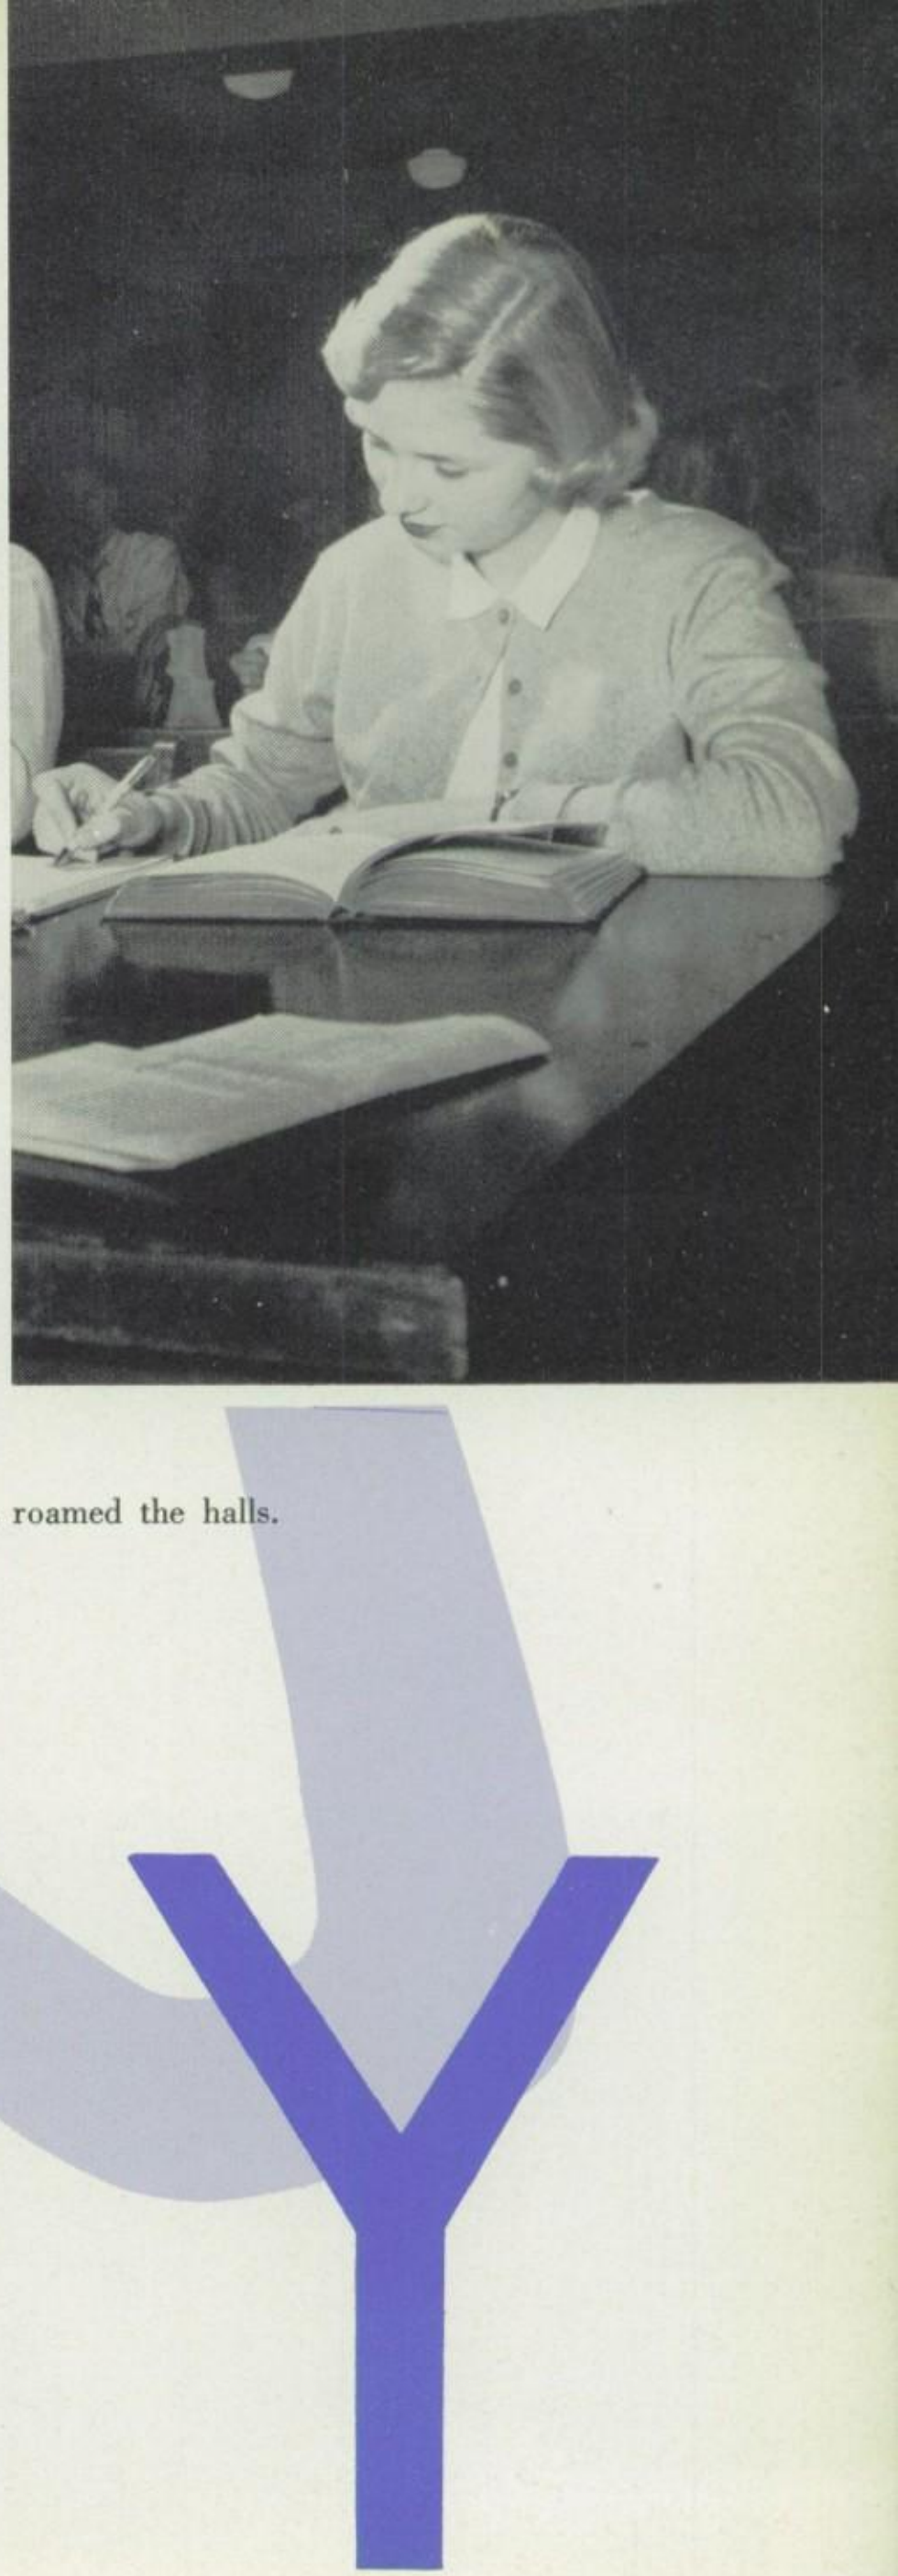
At noon the spectators had a chance to enjoy their food.

The players, on the other hand, felt as though they had eaten the basketball and made baskets with their lunch.

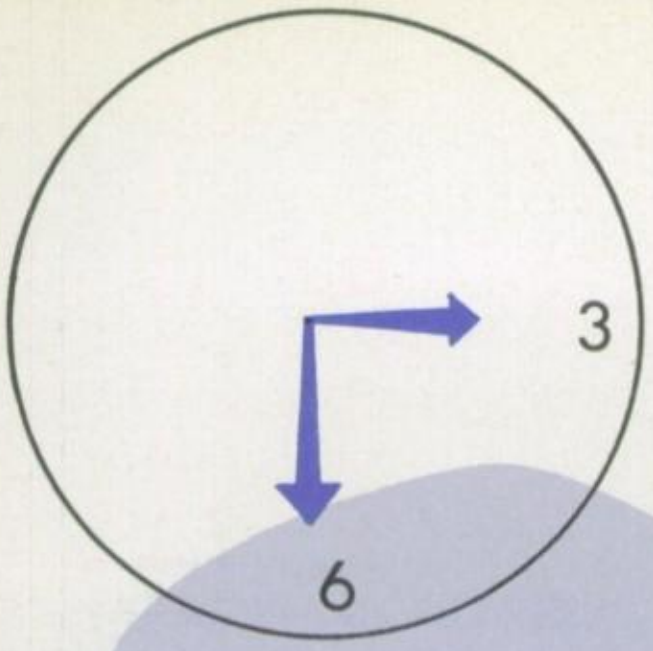
THE



Some of us took advantage of study hall.



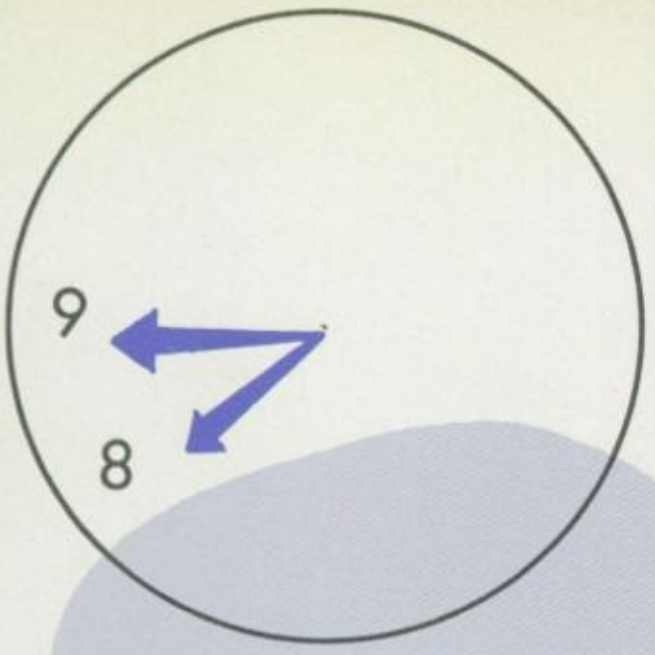
Others roamed the halls.



There were those of us who were requested to stay after school.

But most of us had the chance to spoil our dinner at the drug store.

H.



Greeting our dates made us forget our school routine.

And, late in the evening, we gained the reward which made it a perfect day.

CALENDAR OF BEXLEY EVENTS

Sept. 14—First day of school. I didn't know the summer could go by that fast . . .

Sept. 18—A successful dance compensates for our defeat by St. Charles 26-0 in the season's first.

Oct. 10—Proud parents watch their sons fight hard but lose 27-6 to Urbana.

Oct. 24—Queen Evie and Court see Bexley beat Delaware 19-7 in the Homecoming game.

Oct. 28—Bruised shins after hockey night. Congratulations to Marcia.

Oct. 28—Parents see if their urchins have been mistreated . . . Open House.

Oct. 31—Which was more exciting, the Washington C. H. game or the pen riot?

Nov. 7—We conclude our football season with a victory over North 14-0.

Nov. 19—Coach tells an original joke ! ! Barry and Benny are elected co-captains for '54 at banquet.

Nov. 27-28—Time out for turkey.

Nov. 28—Cagers start by losing to Marion Harding 46-33.

Dec. 9—To be, or not to be, the Macbeth assembly, oh gee!

Dec. 11—Christmas choir concert. Dig those crazy reindeer!

Dec. 17—Christmas assembly. Crooner Gibson sends us on our way with "Oh Happy Day."

Jan. 1—Hap . . . py New Year. The party at the mansion was great, per usual.

Jan. 5—Back to school. Knew it couldn't last forever.

Jan. 9—Boys beat Delaware for first win 70-53. Captain Swisher leads lads with 18.

Jan. 30—End of exams. We find out how much we don't know.

Jan. 31—Thanks for a fine concert, Mr. Stanton.

Feb. 20—Romans roam to Latin Club.

Feb. 23—Senior play cast chosen. Opal's birthday. Thought we wouldn't do it, huh, Joe?

Feb. 23—Bexley again takes district swim crown. It's getting to be a habit, boys.

Feb. 24—"The Mule" leads Bexley with 29 in first tourney win over Grove City 63-57.

Feb. 25—Girls' class basketball night. Varsity B shows 'em how to play the game.

March 13-14—Minstrel Show. Mr. Bones, do you know why the chicken crossed the road?

April 1—Stock, McHam, and Neustadt drag out the spring athletes.

April 16-17—Weren't Bill and Carol a riot in "Stardust?"

May 7-8—Mr. Myers and company present "The Fortune Teller" as the choir's spring offering.

May 16—Thanks juniors for a terrific prom.

May 31—Baccalaureate. It's later than we think.

June 4—Commencement. We've been looking forward to it for four years, but we really hate to leave. Good luck, seniors.
